Sequence

Holy Spirit, Lord of Light,
From the clear celestial height
Thy pure beaming radiance give.

Come, thou Father of the poor,
Come with treasures which endure
Come, thou light of all that live!

Thou, of all consolers best,
Thou, the soul's delightful guest,
Dost refreshing peace bestow

Thou in toil art comfort sweet
Pleasant coolness in the heat
Solace in the midst of woe.

Light immortal, light divine,
Visit thou these hearts of thine,
And our inmost being fill:

If thou take thy grace away,
Nothing pure in man will stay
All his good is turned to ill.

Heal our wounds, our strength renew
On our dryness pour thy dew
Wash the stains of guilt away:

Bend the stubborn heart and will
Melt the frozen, warm the chill
Guide the steps that go astray.

Thou, on us who evermore
Thee confess and thee adore,
With thy sevenfold gifts descend:

Give us comfort when we die
Give us life with thee on high
Give us joys that never end.

Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

The season of Easter concludes with the celebration of the feast of Pentecost. On this day, we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit on the apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem as we recount in the first reading. Pentecost Sunday is often called the birthday of the Church. For the ancient Israelites, Pentecost (meaning fiftieth) was a harvest festival celebrated 50 days after the beginning of the harvest. When Jerusalem Temple was built, this harvest was transformed into a pilgrimage feast to celebrate the covenant that God made with Israel on Mt. Sinai. Several decades after the death of Jesus, the early Christians reflected on their origins and chose this feast to mark the birth of God's new covenant with God's people.

In the context of the feast of Pentecost, Luke's description in Acts of the giving of the spirit is different from John's, for both of them, the task of the Holy Spirit is to take the place of Jesus, to carry on his work, and to ensure his presence in the world. John 20:19-23 reminds us of the integral connection between the gifts of peace and forgiveness and the action of the Holy Spirit. Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace and sends them on a mission of peace in continuity with his own God – inspired mission. "As the Father has sent me, so am I sending you". He breathes the Holy Spirit upon the disciples and sends them to continue the work of reconciliation through the forgiveness of sins.

Jesus' act of breathing upon the apostles mirrors God's act of breathing life into Adam. Both Greek and Hebrew words for 'Spirit' can also be translated as 'breath'. The Gospel reminds us that the church through the action of the Holy Spirit is called to be a reconciling presence in the world. This reconciling presence of Christ in the world is celebrated in the sacramental life of the church. In Baptism, we are cleansed of sin and become new creation in Christ. In the Sacrament of Penance, the Church celebrates the unfathomable mercy of God through the forgiveness of sins. This reconciling presence is also to be a way of life for Christians. We are called by Jesus Christ to be active agents of peace and harmony striving ceaselessly as a global community to address the root causes of violence and abuse in order to promote sustainable peace in the world.

God bless you, Fr Clement.

Irish Referendum on the
 Eighth Amendment,
 25 May 2018

In their Spring Statement, the Irish Bishops wrote, "Article 40.3.3 is a declaration of equality and respect for human life. It represents, at the very foundations and substructure of our laws, a conviction that all human life is worth cherishing equally. To repeal this Article would leave unborn children at the mercy of whatever permissive abortion laws might be introduced in Ireland in the future. We invite people of faith to pray earnestly that Ireland will "choose life" and that the lives of all women and their unborn children will always be loved, valued, welcomed and respected in this country."
