Eucharistic Ministers

There appears to still be some confusion regarding the purification of the Chalices after Holy Communion.

At the morning of reflection for Eucharistic Ministers it was announced that the Chalices would now be purified at the credence table. This was the only change to the existing parish practice.

There was no change to who would purify the Chalices which is part of the Priest's role (or deacon if present) in accordance with the General Instructions of the Roman Missal.

Happy the people the Lord has chosen as his own.

All of us start off life as part of a family and we are not born to be alone. We need the love and friendship of others. God is a Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It is the happiest of families. They are totally united in love for each other.

Jesus taught us about his Father and he also taught us about the Holy Spirit, the Counsellor. God makes us to be part of his family when we are baptised. On that day we became sons and daughters of God. St Paul reminds us of this when he tells us that the Spirit we received is a spirit assuring us that we are children of God making us call God Father. We belong to the family of God and we acknowledge that fact at the start of every Mass when we make the sign of the Cross. The Holy Spirit is with us to draw us closer still to the family of God.

Today we rejoice in the glory of God whose life and love we share. A love that flows from the Father is revealed in Jesus his Son and is poured into us through the Holy Spirit who dwells within us.

There is a story that St Augustine was walking on the beach contemplating the mystery of the Trinity. Then he saw a boy in front of him who had dug a hole in the sand and was going out to the sea again and again and bringing some water to pour into the hole. St Augustine asked him, "What are you doing?" "I'm going to pour the entire ocean into this hole." "That is impossible, the whole ocean will not fit in the hole you have made" said St Augustine. The boy replied, "And you cannot fit the understanding of the Trinity in your tiny little brain." The story concludes by saying that the boy vanished because St Augustine had been talking to an angel.

Perhaps the most comforting thought for any of us is the last line of this Sunday's Gospel.

God bless – Have a good week. Deacon Simon.

A Short Survey for Recent Confirmation Candidates

Bishop Richard is currently holding a consultation on how we prepare people for confirmation.

If you've recently been confirmed then we'd like to hear from you.

The diocese has created a short survey which you can access on line - <http://bit.ly/surveyconf>.

We would also ask parents to pass this on to their children who have recently been confirmed if possible.
